Women's Issues in Transportation

5th International Conference on Women's Issues in Transportation: Bridging the Gap

April 14-16, 2014 – Paris La Défense

Register now to become a sponsor of the 5th International Conference on Women's Issues in Transportation; a three-day conference exploring the on-going study and analysis of achievements, progress, challenges and issues encountered by female travelers. As the fifth in a series of conferences that began in 1978, this 2014 conference is being organized in conjunction and concurrent with the Transport Research Arena (TRA). Both events are scheduled from April 14-16, 2014, at the Conference Center on New Industries and Technologies (CNIT) located in Paris - La Défense.

As a conference sponsor, you will have the opportunity to network with an international audience of some 150 transportation research and public policy professionals. The conference format provides opportunities for sponsors to be featured throughout the event and provides access to conference attendees representing diverse backgrounds, professions, and geographic locations.
